

English I
Summer Reading-50 points
Mrs. Everett
Night by Elie Wiesel

Name _____ Date _____

1. The setting of the novel is

2. The main character is _____

3. Describe the main character _____

4. Name at least two major events that happened that changed this character's life.

a.

b.

5. What can we understand about life after reading Night?

6. What does the main character learn about his faith in God?

7. How does the book end?

8. What new information did you learn from this book?

9. Did this book make you want to read more works by this author? _____.
Explain-_____

1. Who should read this book?

Why?

2. What is your favorite quote from the book? Record page #

Why?

3. One question that I would like to ask the writer is

4. If this were the only information that you had on humanity, what would you think of people?

5. Many people who survived the Holocaust feel it is important that the world never forgets the horrors of the concentration camps, do you agree? Explain your answer.

15. The writer once stated on the subject of reading, "You take a text, you explore it, and you enter it with all your heart and mind. And then you find clues that were left for you, really foredestined to be received by you from centuries ago. Generation after generation there were people who left clues, and you are there to collect them and, at one point, you understand something that you hadn't understood before." What does this mean to you as you read this quote?

1. A memoir is a piece of an autobiographical writing, usually shorter in nature than a comprehensive autobiography. Why do you think that the author wanted readers to gain an understanding of what happened to him?
